CHRISTIAN CHURCH REVIVAL

The Kellums-Richards revival in progress at the Christian church is going on with great enthusiasm, and being attended by very large crowds, who listen to every remark by Rev. Kellums with the very closest attention. Sunday morning and evening the church was taxed to its utmost to accommodate the crowds.

Rev. Kellums' sermon Sunday morning on "The Lord's Supper," and Sunday evening on "Baptism," were two of the strongest sermons ever delivered in Paris, and met with a hearty response, many coming forward to unite with the church. It is the general opinion that every sermon Rev. Kellums preaches is better than the one preceding.

Up to Sunday night there had been one hundred and fifty-eight additions to the congregation. The meeting will continue through next Sunday. There is a baptismal service nearly every evening, and it is always most impressive.

One of the most pleasing features of the meeting is that so many of the young people of the city and county making confession are of ages ranging from sixteen to twenty-one. Sunday morning a section of the church will be reserved for all who have joined during the meeting. Be sure to be on hand. Wednesday evening the Men's Chorus will furnish the music.

The congregational singing at both services Sunday was most enjoyable and inspiring. It is expected that the two hundred mark will be reached by Sunday. The topics for the week will be as follows:

Tuesday night, "What Church Shall I Join?" Wednesday night, "Origin of the Different Denominations;" Thursday night, "The Scriptural Heart and How It is Changed;" Friday night, "Can a Man be Saved Outside the Church?" Sunday morning, "A New Creature in Christ." (This is the service at which a section will be reserved for those who have joined the church during the meeting); Sunday night, "Christian Union."

If you are missing these services you are depriving yourself of a great pleasure. It is seldom that an evangelist is found who can enthuse and hold his audiences with strictly doctrinal preaching as does Rev. Kellums. Many people from a distance were noticed in the congregation Sunday evening.

The Sunbeam Choir is doing some fine singing and it is greatly enjoyed. One of the most pleasing and beautiful features of the meeting was the cornet and saxophone duet, "Whispering Hope." Sunday evening, by William Talbott and Dr. Harry Mathers. The Male Quartette also sang, "We Are Going Down The Valley."

Help make this week the best of the meeting!

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS HAVE LARGE INITIATION

A large crowd, equalled in numbers only by the delegation which attended the installation of P. I. McCarthy Council in this city about two years ago, was in Paris, Sunday, to witness the initiation of a class of seventy-three novices into the mysteries of the order.

The day's exercises began with celebration of mass at the Church of the Annunciation, at 9:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Father O'Hare, the pastor, assisted by visiting ministers of the church. At ten o'clock the candidates assembled at the K. of C. Hall, on Main street, where they were enrolled. The first degree was conferred on the candidates at eleven o'clock, the work being put on at the Masonic Temple by the degree team from Bluegrass Council, of Lexington. At 1:30 p. m. the second degree was conferred on the candidates by the same team at the same place. At 3:30 p. m. they were given the third degree by J. J. Donovan and staff, of Ludlow. The class was composed of 32 from Paris and Bourbon county, 32 from Falmouth, six from Cynthiana, two from Mt. Sterling, and one from Lexington.

At 6:30 p. m. a sumptuous banquet, prepared by the Ladies Aid Society of the church, was served in the basement, about four hundred guests being present. During the banquet a musical program was rendered by the Bourbon Orchestra. The banquet room was beautifully decorated and presented a brilliant sight, with the bright lights, fair women and the tasteful decorations. The menu served comprised the following: Entrees; Bourbon old ham; roast young chicken, Kentucky dressing; creamed potatoes; petit pois in timbales, with champignons; tomato salad; Thousand Island dressing; hot rolls; brick cream; individual cakes; coffee; mints; cigars; cigarettes.

Rev. Father William O'Hare, pastor of the Paris church, presided as toastmaster, doing the honors gracefully. Rev. Link, of Cincinnati, who was formerly stationed at Paris, spoke on the subject, "The Valiant Knight;" Hon. Al. G. Krebs, of Covington, on "Christopher Columbus Crossing The Sea," and Hon. Chas. E. Purdy, of Covington, on "Knights of Columbus in 1921." The addresses were brilliant and witty, evoking long and loud applause from the delighted hearers.

FIREBUGS ATTEMPT TO BURN BOURBON HOME

One of the most mysterious cases of attempted arson that has come to the attention of the authorities was reported to the police and the county authorities late Thursday night, when they were informed by a telephone message of an attempt made by firebugs to destroy the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Bagby, on the Clintonville road, one mile from Paris.

Mr. Bagby, who is an engineer on the Louisville & Nashville, was on duty that night, and away from home. His wife and children were in Paris, the former attending a meeting of the order of the Eastern Star in the Masonic Temple. On their return home, Mrs. Bagby, on approaching the house, saw a light shining from one of the windows, and, getting closer, discovered smoke issuing from it. She hurriedly summoned neighbors, who entered the home, and found an attempt had been made to fire the place. One floor, bedding, furniture and clothing in the house had been thoroughly saturated with kerosene, and a match applied. But for the timely arrival of Mrs. Bagby the home would have been destroyed entirely. The flames, which were just starting up, were extinguished.

Fortunately all the doors and windows had been securely closed before the occupants left the home, and there was no chance for a draught to fan the incipient flames. It was thought the fiends who had done the work had secured a key to the home, and entered and left by the front door. Capt. V. G. Mullikin, of Lexington, was summoned and came to the scene with his bloodhounds. The dogs were unable to find a satisfactory trail, due to the fact that so many persons had entered the door and congregated in the front yard before their arrival, and the chase was abandoned.

The authorities are still working on the case, in hopes of striking something that will eventually lead to the detection of the perpetrators of the crime. They are of the opinion that it was the work of someone who had a grudge against the family, as a number of valuables left in plain view were not disturbed and nothing was taken from the house.

COMMERCIAL CLUB NOTES

Rudolph Davis will be the generalissimo of the good fellowship tour in which the business men of Paris will visit every community in Bourbon county in the near future. This according to Mr. Davis, will be one of the biggest events from Bourbon county in near future, the result of which will be to create a stronger relationship between the people of Paris and Bourbon county.

Mr. Davis has called a meeting for 7:30 Thursday night, to be held at the court house, to make full preparations for the trip. He wants all business and professional men, in fact, all persons interested in making the event a big success, to be on hand Thursday evening. Even though no definite plans have been made for the trip, interest is already at high pitch among the merchants of the city who believe this will mean much in promoting both business and fellowship. At the meeting Thursday night, Mr. Davis will perfect his organization and he is particularly anxious that a large number attend the meeting.

The Paris Commercial Club will send three representatives to Covington to-morrow to attend the meeting there in the interest of the Licking Valley and Bluegrass Highway. Rudolph Davis, John J. Williams and William E. Hacker will attend and any others interested are invited to accompany them. At the last meeting in the interest of this route, held at Cynthiana, several weeks ago, a large delegation made the trip in automobiles from here. The meeting Wednesday will be held under the auspices of the Covington Industrial Club. Lunch will be served at noon to all the guests and the good roads boosters will meet directly after lunch. Recent reports indicate that much progress is being made in the improvement of the Bluegrass route, which is now carrying practically all traffic from Cincinnati south, and the boosters are confident that, regardless of the improvements contemplated on the Dixie Highway, that the Bluegrass Highway will eventually be the main artery of travel through this section of the country.

At Bettysville last week in the case of Wm. Briggs vs. the Director-General of Railroads, a damage suit, a verdict for $15,000 in favor of Briggs was brought in by the jury. The case for the plaintiff was handled by Robt. C. Talbot, of Paris, representing the legal firm of Franklin, Talbot & Chapman.

PROMINENT TOBACCO MAN DIES SUDDENLY

Silas Shelburne, aged about seventy-five, one of the best-known tobacco warehouse men in Central Kentucky, died suddenly in his office at the corner of South Broadway and Pine street, in Lexington, Friday night. Mr. Shelburne had been looking over some business matters, and was seen by Thomas Slater, a physician, who was summoned, to be apparently suffering great pain. A physician was summoned, but Mr. Shelburne died before he arrived.

He was a native of Virginia. He came to Lexington in 1904 and built the second loose leaf warehouse in the city, which was located at South Broadway and Hayman avenue. Later he sold that warehouse and built the Shelburne warehouse at South Broadway and Pine street, being president of the company that owns it.

Mr. Shelburne is said to have enjoyed the distinction of having sold more tobacco than any other man in the world.

When he was a youth of about 17 years, Mr. Shelburne left his home in Virginia, and enlisted in the Confederate army under General Jackson, fighting through the rest of the war with him. He always enjoyed telling experiences of his war days in his characteristic jovial manner.

Mr. Shelburne is survived by two children, his son, Victor, and Mrs. Ethel Armistead, Roanoke, Virginia. Mrs. Shelburne died several years ago. Mr. Shelburne has one brother living, who makes his home in Texas where he edits a religious paper.

Accompanied by his son, Victor Shelburne, of Washington, North Carolina, and W. L. Petty, representative of the Lexington Tobacco Board of Trade, the body was taken Saturday, to Richmond, Va., where the funeral and interment took place yesterday.

BOURBON COUNTY REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE MEETS

The Bourbon County Republican Committee met at the court house Saturday afternoon, with County Chairman W. A. Thomason presiding, and Winn Hutchcraft acting as secretary.

While a few names were mentioned as possible candidates, from various precincts the ticket was not completed. On motion of Stamps Moore, a committee of five, composed of Jas. Shea, C. P. Rice, Jos. D. Booth, Quincy Mahoney and Chas. P. Mann were appointed to canvass the county and select a ticket comprising candidates for all the offices, and report at a later meeting to be held.

Chairman Thomason strongly urged the selection of a number of ex-service men as candidates.

OCCASIONALLY YOU FIND A FISH

That exactly describes fishing here. And every Kentuckian knows how this State has passed from the greatest fish and game section in America to one of almost complete depletion.

Collins, the historian, speaks of the first law passed in Kentucky as a law "prohibiting the killing of buffalo within two hundred yards of a settlement."

The Bourbon Fish and Game Club represents the first attempt in Kentucky to restock streams by private means.

If the sportsmen and landholders here make this movement a success it will spread throughout the Bluegrass at least, and give back our natural resources that other generations of Kentuckians most delighted to enjoy.

The first thing the new Club wants to accomplish is the adequate restocking of Bourbon county streams. Catesby Spears, who led the movement, hopes that 25,000 young fish can be obtained for this purpose, and Ayelette Buckner, president of the Club, says there are enough true sportsmen in Bourbon county to make this possible. The first object of the Club will be to get together such men as Mr. Buckner mentioned.

FIX GRASS SEED STRIPPING PRICES.

A well attended meeting of those interested in the bluegrass seed industry in Bourbon county, was held Saturday in the office of the Bourbon County Farm Bureau, in the court house. A maximum price for harvesting of the present crop was fixed at $6.00, of which $3.50 will be paid to the "raker" of gathering machines and $2.50 to drivers. It was also agreed that the maximum price to be paid "stirrers" should be $2.50. The seed harvesting will probably begin this week.

DECORATION DAY BALL GAME

The Paris Ruggies team defeated the Versailles Club yesterday at the Second street park, by a score of 17 to 11. In one inning a Paris player tallied two home runs. A good sized crowd was in attendance and witnessed a one-sided but interesting game.

COMMERCIAL CLUB NOTES

The Retail Merchants' Bureau of the Paris Commercial Club is drafting preliminary plans for a "good fellowship tour" throughout Bourbon county, which, it is expected, will be inaugurated within the next few weeks. "The purpose of the tour," according to John F. Davis, director of business affairs of the Commercial Club, "will be to promote a stronger relationship between the business men of Paris and the various communities of Bourbon county. We want to extend to them the hand of fellowship and convince them that the business men of Paris are interested in the development of the whole county."

Rudolph Davis has been assigned to the chairmanship and will perfect the necessary organization in a few days. A feature of the trip, according to preliminary arrangements, will be a parade in Paris, before the departure of the boosters.

Trade in some sections of Bourbon county has for many years been absorbed by other towns in their immediate vicinity, due principally to the apparent apathy of Paris merchants, and it is to correct this state of affairs that the Commercial Club will endeavor to put into execution their "trade-at-home" methods and induce the trade that rightfully belongs to merchants of these places to remain with them.

"Keep 'Em Smiling," a playground film produced by Community Service, Inc., of New York, will be shown at the local moving picture theatres Friday, June 3. Mr. Sprake, the local manager, has kindly consented to run this as a feature of the regular show. The activities shown have taken place all over the country, and show the little tots in such varied activities as playing in the sand box and listening to stories being told by story tellers dressed as gypsies. The "Shoe-string Catch" as demonstrated in baseball is one of the unique features in the film. All the activities shown are interesting and appeal very strongly to the imagination of old and young.

THE BOURBON GUN CLUB

The Bourbon Gun Club held its regular shoot last Friday afternoon. Thirty-nine shooters faced the traps with the wind taking a prominent part. Raising the little clay targets jumping every way. This was the best shoot this year in every respect, and caused the hottest contest since the club started over a year ago. Eight shooters tied for the first shoot-off, six for the second, three for the third, and two for the fourth. James M. Caldwell was finally returned the winner with Wm. Wornall as runner-up. Caldwell broke 95 out of his last 100. The trophy was a case of shells donated by Dave E. Clark and W. F. Link. Next regular shoot Friday, June 10. Visitors are always welcome. Score.

"DISABLED SOLDIERS' WEEK"

MAY 29-JUNE 4.

Governor Morrow has issued the following call for the recognition of the week of May 29 as Disabled Soldiers' Week: "The National Disabled Soldiers' League has set apart the week of May 29 as Disabled Soldiers' Week. It is desired that the attention of all patriotic organizations. It is hoped during the week people of the State will give earnest thought and consideration to their obligation to the disabled soldiers; to those who bore the bunt of war for us and who through their service and sacrifice, are left maimed, broken and disabled. Especially the citizens of the State should remember these heroes and the duty of the Nation to preserve those who preserved us."

McCOMBS OIL DIRECTORS FOUND GUILTY.

John McLaughlin, of New York, and Abram Renick, of Winchester, directors of the McCombs Oil Company, were found guilty on 13 counts of using the mails in a scheme to defraud, by a jury in the United States District Court, at Louisville, which returned its verdict soon after resuming deliberation at 2 o'clock Saturday.

Immediately following announcement of the verdict James P. Edwards, of counsel for the defense, moved that the defendants be dismissed of the fifteen charges of conspiracy to defraud, contending that it had been quashed when Judge Evans instructed the government at the outset of the trial to elect on what charge it would prosecute. The motion was overruled.

W. W. Crawford, of counsel for the defense, asked for a new trial. Motion on this question will be heard to-day, the same day that McLaughlin and Renick are scheduled to be sentenced by Judge Evans.

The penalty for the offense of which the two oil men were found guilty is a fine of not more than $2,000 or not more than five years imprisonment or both for each count.

ONE CENT SALE

THE RECALL ONE CENT SALE NOW GOING ON AT VARDEN'S DRUG STORE.

"OH, NO! WE'RE NOT FIGHTING TOBACCO!"

That the use of tobacco is "the deadliest curse of the American nation to-day," and that the deadliest of all articles is "a little roll of paper called the cigarette," was the declaration of Mrs. Frances E. Beauchamp, of Lexington, State president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, before convention sessions of the district organization of White Ribbon workers at Paducah. "Women of the W. C. T. U., don't flicker on this tobacco question! Save those who use tobacco from this curse of the defilement of the temple of God! Liquor was a curse; tobacco is a greater curse. The deadliest of all things is the deadly little cigarette. A cigarette fiend will invariably lie and steal, it has been proved by eminent authority," the speaker declared in her attack on tobacco.
